1. Provisions to Be Waived

List those provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) for which a waiver is sought. Include specific Article and Section numbers, as well as the page number on which the provisions are found in the current CBA.

Article 6 – Hours of Employment (page 6-10)

6.1.1. B.1.e.3

One (1) preparation period equivalent in length of time to one of the teaching periods at the school will be assigned to teachers. The District may request a teacher to perform duties other than activities related to his/her professional responsibilities during a preparation period, provided such is limited to assisting staff during emergency situations as deemed necessary by the District. Pay for teaching a class during a unit member's preparation period, when assigned by the administration, shall be one seventh (1/7th) of the unit member's daily rate of pay.

Article 7 – Class Size (page 7-2)

7.1.4. C

Grades 6-12 at secondary schools - 40 students per class and 175 students assigned per classroom teacher in any one teaching day plus a group of 30 students per advisory period, provided that up to 15% of the advisory groups may at the District's discretion have as many as 35 students per group.

3. Proposed Replacement Text:

Please provide the replacement language which is proposed to operate in place of the waived CBA provisions.

6.1.1. B.1.e.3

On full-day Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays one (1) preparation period of at least 50 minutes and one 28 minute Primetime/Intervention or enrichment period of 28 minutes will be appointed to teachers. During the Primetime/Intervention period, teachers may opt for one or more of the following options:

- a. Implementation of intervention and instruction for students.
- b. Provide enrichment activities for students.
- c. supervision of students for Primetime time.

On Wednesdays, one preparation period of 45 minutes will be assigned to teachers (equal to one period on collaboration Wednesdays). The District may request a teacher to perform duties other than activities related to his/her professional responsibilities during a preparation period, provided such is limited to assisting staff during emergency situations as deemed necessary by the District. Pay for teaching a class during a unit member's preparation period, when assigned by the administration, shall be one seventh (1/7th) of the unit member's daily rate of pay.

7.1.4 C

Grades 6-12 at secondary schools - 40 students per class and 175 students assigned per classroom teacher in any one teaching day plus a group of 30 students per advisory period, provided that up to 15% of the advisory groups may at the District's discretion have as many as 35 students per group. During

Primetime/Intervention period, site administration and teaching staff mutually agree to waive language relating to additional contacts as to not be considered in excess of the contracted maximum of 175 students daily.

4. What is the purpose of the waiver?

The purpose of the waiver is to incorporate a 28-minute Primetime/Intervention block each full-day Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday into our schedule to supplement instruction for students below grade level, provide enrichment options for students above grade level, provide 28 minutes of reading time using PowerUp, Language Live, IXL, or another intervention program.
